

Leah Shoshanah

About

Leah Shoshanah seeks to unite the divided — both within oneself and in the outside world. Through her beautiful voice and honest songwriting, listeners from all walks of life find space to shed tears, laugh, sing and dance. Over the past decade, Shoshanah has sung on historic stages in Chicago, toured the Eastern and Central USA and played to audiences of thousands on tour in Germany. Over the summers, she builds community by hosting free outdoor concerts. In 2022, Shoshanah's work was honored by a Department of Cultural Affairs grant.

Upcoming Releases

Fire - 1/25/23

Cold Holiday - 2/9/23

In the Garden - 3/10/23

Learning to Be Free (LP) - 6/4/23

Notable Performances

51 date European Tour

6/19-9/19 // Germany & Belgium

Martyrs' Live

5/28/19 // Chicago, IL

Old Town School of Folk Music

7/15/18 // Chicago, IL

Chicagoland Jewish Festival

6/10/18 // Chicago, IL

Quotes

"Through her unbelievably adaptable voice, Leah Shoshanah shifts tones frequently... but balances folk minimalism so well. Nothing is simple in her messages or in her brilliantly written songs."

-Chaz Thoughts

"(Brave Woman is) a reminder that we all must carry on in the face of adversity and never stop creating art, speaking out, and living for ourselves"

-Indigo Hope Finamore

Upcoming Tour Dates

1/20/24 (Chicago)

3/9/24 (Chicago)

Music Video

Monthly Views

Lifetime Views

YouTube Followers

@LEAHSHOSHANAH

LEAHSHOSHANAH@GMAIL.COM

LEAHSHOSHANAH.COM

